GIANT HOLLYHOCK

OCEANSIDE, July 28.—Ernest Wykes has solved the problem of a small garden plot by putting the accent on the vertical rather than the horizontal.

Today his prize hollyhock measures 11 feet 4 inches.

Wykes, an astrologer, gives the moon and the planets an assist for the remarkable growth. The hollyhock, he said, was planted at an astrologically favorable moment.

LOS ANGELES EXAMINER—July 29, 1951.

Tom Henderson of 85 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., provided the NEWS with the above story and at the same time submitted some data of his own. "I have read with interest about Mr. Wykes' prize hollyhock. I have been cutting mine down and disposing of them but did take one at random and run the tape on some which measured 18' and 10". I know I had some taller as they grew up in my light wires, some still standing will run 15 ft. These were all volunteers not planted by the moon and no particular care given."

When Mr. Henderson was questioned for an explanation of the giant growth he smiled and said: "Sierra Madre Climate."

Twin birds nests are in the window of the Sierra Madre Tailors. Mrs. Craig said they found it in a tree in their yard. The nest was intentionally woven together, many of the feathers and twigs were fastened in the full length of the two nests. No one so far has seen one before.

Editor Stanley Cann has been away from his desk at the NEWS the past two weeks on vacation. Most of his time was spent at San Francisco and the near-by beaches. The next issue will be back to par.

He is associated with a ranch broker and makes sketches and layouts from aerial photographs of large properties which are on sale.

Every summer members of the Sierra Madre Garden Club look forward to their pot luck picnic as a highlight on the year's agenda. This time the date has been set for August 13, Monday evening at 6:30, and as usual the place is the Arcadia City Park.

New Mountain
Road to Open

The Automobile Club of Southern California today (Friday) reported that a new road from Mill Creek to Camp Angelus in the San Bernardino Mountains is expected to be officially opened between August 1 to 15. The artery, when completed, will provide high gear travel to the popular Camp Angelus, Barton Flats, Upper Santa River recreational areas, thus eliminating transportation via the present ancient, twisting road. Reports indicate that the new highway is already being used although construction work has not been completed.

FIRST RATTLER
KILLED HERE

It has happened—the first diamond back rattlesnake has been killed in Sierra Madre this year. Mrs. Besocke of 891 E. Grandview, reported yesterday morning that the snake was killed by Bill McMillan on their property.

The reptile was lying in the path, sunning, when the daughter of the family accidentally encountered it. The path was a steep climb and she literally met the snake face-to-face.

As the mountains become dry this time of year the snakes seek lower land in quest of water.

ARCHITECT FUND
RAISING IN PROGRESS

The fund being raised to hire an architect to design the shelter at the depot square is coming in very well according to members of the Sierra Madre Business Men's Association.

It is hoped that the fund will be completed in time for the breakfast meeting of the association to be held next Wednesday morning, eight o'clock, August 8.

MRS. PARKER
DENIED VARIANCE

The request of Mrs. Alicia Parker of 667 W. Grandview Ave., for a zone variance to permit establishment of a nursery school in an R-1 zone was denied at the hearing before the Planning Commission last Thursday night in the City Hall Council Chambers.

Residents living in the vicinity of the proposed school expressed strong opposition to the plan, declaring it would destroy the residential character of the neighborhood, would be an opening wedge for the granting of similar variances, would lessen the usefulness of the city went into effect as soon as voted Tuesday night.

Local Author's Work Made Available to the Blind

A regional short story by Idella Purnell, of Sierra Madre, has been embossed in Braille by the American Printing House for the Blind, in Louisville, Kentucky. This story is included in the regional series of three books, "Children of the U.S.A.," published by Silver Burdett Company, textbook publishers, and compiled by Marion Beiden Cook. The Braille edition of the series is seven volumes.

Miss Purnell's story, "The Champion," represents California in the volume, "Stories from the West." Scenes are a flower and seed ranch on the Mission Trail, San Francisco, and the State Fair at Sacramento. The action evolves around a boy who takes his trained frog to the fair to enter him in a jumping frog contest. A unique feature of the story is a typical dinner in one of San Francisco's Chinatown restaurants.

"Children of the U.S.A." contains stories descriptive of childhood today in all of our states and principal territories. The series is used in schools, for the social studies, and in libraries throughout the United States. It is also in use on display in thirty-three other countries. The books are approved by the UNESCO, and have been used at three of the international education seminars: in Brussels, Quebec and Montevideo.

Editor's note: Idella Purnell is known in Sierra Madre as Mrs. Remington Stone of 321 E. Grandview.

DISASTER
FUNDS LAG

A call went out last week from the local chapter of the American Red Cross for funds to help in the $5,000,000 dollars which the National Red Cross will need in the Kansas flood disaster.

Local chairman, R. C. Lewis of the Bank of Sierra Madre, reports a little over $100 has been turned in since from Sierra Madreams. He is hoping that the city proposed quota of $500 will be met without making solicitations.

The need for funds is growing in the report of veteran Red Cross Disaster worker, Robert Edson, Edson said homes were wrenched from their foundations, rolled down the streets for blocks and in many cases were completely demolished. Some homes vanished and the mud and silt covered everything, sometimes three feet deep. A few tragedies noted from his work are: blind couple in their seventies lose home under 15 feet of water; woman 64, an invalid for 30 years and bedfast, lost her 3-room home; man's sole source of income, a bulldozer buried in the mud; and thousands of similar and more gruesome situations must await the rescue and help of Red Cross.

Locally checks or money for the disaster may be left with Mr. Lewis at the Bank or at the Red Cross Chapter house, 41 South Baldwin Avenue.

Local Woman
Helps Topeka

When Ellen Wilson of Peg's restaurant departed for a two-weeks' vacation with her family at Topeka, Kansas, little did she realize that she would assume the role of a Red Cross worker in the recent flood disaster.

She enjoyed a normal two-days' visit in her sister's home before the situation became acute. The family had 18 hours notice to evacuate. The water reached a six-foot level at the sister's home. Mrs. Wilson said the experience was very terrifying, the radio was constantly announcing instructions. The condition of the dykes was told to the people and as different portions gave way a new area would be added to the disaster. Mrs. Wilson said the last dyke was cracked when the recession started. However, only one broadcasting station was spared for use, all others were washed out.

When the call came for volunteers, from Red Cross, Mrs. Wilson and her mother, Mrs. Effie Linder, responded. They worked two nights and several days delivering food and supplies to families and the workers on the dykes.

Mrs. Wilson was unable to leave Topeka via train, all tracks were submerged. She left by bus.

Canyon Pool Now
Open 3 Nights

More Than 4000 Swimmers Recorded
In Pool Since the Formal Opening

Sierra Madre's Canyon Pool has been a popular place this summer. Since opening six weeks ago 4443 bathers have taken advantage of its cool, clear water. It has had an average of 118 daily attendance, of which 75 per cent has been 11 years and under. July 7th was the biggest day with 265 bathers attending.

Older persons are becoming more interested now that the pool is to remain open from 6 to 8 p. m. on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings. The pool is especially good for younger swimmers because of the special supervision of Life Guard, Steve Stankov. Many have also commented on the fine condition of the water. It is being managed by Harold S. Turner this year.

Los Jovenes
Club Being Organized

An event scheduled for Friday night, August 3, by the Recreation Department should have whole hearted support of parents—the dance at the school cafeteria. It is for teenagers, 7th through 10th grade, from 7:30 to 11. The first hour will be instruction in dancing given by Mrs. John Rudbach.

This group is being organized into a teen-age club to provide recreation for Sierra Madre youth of these ages. There will be dancing, athletics of all kinds and other activities. The proposed name is Los Jovenes Club. Applications for membership will be taken at the dance Friday night.

The adult advisory group, the recreation dept. Mrs. A. L. Storton and Mrs. Rudbach and Mr. Oden are sponsoring the new club.

Local girls at the San Gabriel Valley Campfire at Wasewagan, are Susan Edward, Gail Higgins, Lynne Gildersleeve and Jane Curran.

Fr. Smith Returns
From Big Bear

Fr. Harley G. Smith Jr. of Ascension parish, returned last Saturday from a two weeks' vacation at Big Bear Lake. Fr. Smith said he enjoyed the cool weather and the rain.

According to Fr. Smith the play grounds of Ascension School are to be re-arranged and enlarged before school opens in September.

SOME REFRESHING IDEAS

To the Editor:

I for one am highly in favor of Mr. Manuel de la Torre's proposed solution to the triangle problem. It seems the perfect answer.

Landscaping and a well-designed building such as Mr. de la Torre suggests would create a landmark much more beautiful and functional than the old P. E. station and one which, in the long run, would prove far more time-enduring.

The old pepper trees should provide nostalgia a-plenty for the sentimental.

Practical application of such a structure in my mind exceeds bus-waiting and in-shade-sitting. The projecting walls would be ideal for an outdoor art fair in the spring, a summer exhibit of day campers' craft endeavor, perhaps an art show by school pupils or a boy scout display. Careful regulation would encourage worthwhile exhibits (possibly no more than four or five a year) and should discourage poster and bulletin clutter.

Possibilities for an art fair are tremendous! It does seem that Sierra Madre, with its many artists, should be able to sponsor something of the sort. Problems are many for a year-round exhibit. But an outdoor fair of short duration would be very refreshing and could be handled fairly easily through volunteer committees.

SUMMER
SESSION
CLOSES

The Sierra Madre City School Summer Session will close this week, Friday. Seventy-five youngsters have taken advantage of the work. The classes were about equally divided among the first, second, third and fourth grades, while the fifth and sixth claimed 35 of the number.

Supt. Skutt greatly appreciates the parents' co-operation. He said this year has shown the most regularity of any summer school so far.

This has been visitors' week, the parents were invited to inspect and many were noticed in the class rooms.

Tennis
Tournament
Champions

Tennis results from last week's play-off resulted in Susie Suman champion in girls' singles, 15-years and under, with Pat Sweeney the runner-up. Sylvia Paulos played Jo Denning, Sylvia won 6-1, 6-4. Joan Dobbs defaulted to Susie Suman and Louise Lefler defaulted to Pat Sweeney.

BOYS DOUBLES
In the series of 15 and under, Jolly Paulos and Bob Brogger played Tony Pascoe and Henry Aguilar. Jolly and Bob won 6-4, 3-6, 6-4, making them the champions.

In the series for 13 years and under, Fred Penn and David Porter played Dale Stopp and John McKinley. Dale and John won city doubles championship 6-1, 8-6, making Fred and Dave runners-up.

Gettin' Acquainted
Problem Settled
In Shippey Block

If all of the families living in Sierra Madre for a generation followed the pattern of the Lee Shippeys, the town would retain its 'friendly reputation.'

Last year the Shippeys decided there were so many new people in their block with only a nodding acquaintance that they would invite them in for an evening. The response of the newcomers and the older residents was so gratifying that this year it turned into a Shippey Block picnic with the children invited.

Last Saturday all the folks gathered in the Shippey yard with picnic baskets, nearly forty adults and eleven children.

CHILDREN MAY FIND HOME A LETHAL PLACE

As coddled and protected as most children are at home, it is a startling and ghastly fact that death in one form or another lurks ready to maim or kill youngsters in the kitchen as often as it attacks them in the street. Assumed to be harmless by most mothers, the contents of many boxes and bottles which are stored under the kitchen sink or in the laundry room are just as deadly as those which are kept in the medicine cabinet and labelled with the familiar skull and cross bones.

Children under five—the crawlers and toddlers whose interest in new things involves feeling, seeing, and inevitably, tasting, are the ones who should be most carefully protected. An incomplete but useful check-list of the common and lethal poisons which abound in most kitchens and laundry rooms include:

Lye; ammonia; carbon tetrachloride; alcohol; aniline dyes

—found in some crayons and shoe polish; nicotine—found in some insect sprays and in all cigar and cigarette butts; lead—found in lead toys and most paints; bichloride of mercury; DDT sprays; silver polish; camphor—in the oil form and in moth balls and cakes; acetone as found in nail polish remover; hairwave lotions; disinfectants; bleaches; and the petroleum and pest control products already mentioned.

First aid in poison cases may cause more harm than good unless exact poison and its proper antidote are known beyond question of doubt. When poisoning is suspected in a child—or in an adult for that matter, immediate medical attention is demanded.

Cancer Cure Key:
Early Detection

Early diagnosis and immediate treatment are the greatest guarantees against death from cancer.

The American Cancer Society points out that cancer—of all major causes of death in America—is the most curable: PROVIDED THAT TREATMENT BEGINS SOON ENOUGH!

An annual physical check-up by a physician is the most effective guarantee of early diagnosis. A superficial examination is not enough. It must include thorough examination of those parts of the body where cancer is most likely to start—womb, breast, mouth, chest, rectum.

Should early cancer be detected on one of these periodic physical examinations, prompt treatment by surgery, x-ray or radium can effect a high percentage of cures.

Since cancer can strike anyone—regardless of age or sex—the American Cancer Society advises a thorough examination by a doctor at least once a year. Women over 35 are particularly susceptible to cancer of the reproductive organs. They should have regular examinations twice each year for maximum protection.

Only a doctor can detect early cancer. Only a doctor can successfully treat cancer. Periodic physical examinations give your doctor the best chance of striking back at cancer—and saving your life.

Support the 1950 Cancer Crusade of the American Cancer Society. Strike Back: Give to Conquer Cancer.

Drive slower—think faster.

DINNER

Dollars from East Pour In

The All-Year Club, today reported a 10 per cent gain in the flow of dollars spent here by out-of-state tourists during June. The increased flow amounted to $36,933.642.

The millions were spent here by a total of 434,974 vacationists. Most came from the Midwest and East.

"This was the same thing as a thirty-seven million dollar draft drawn on the farms and factories and businesses of the other states in favor of Southern California."

It is money they spent with in Southern California—exclusive of the cost of making the trip here and home again.

FACTS FROM THE LIFE OF AN OSTRICH

Largest living cell known is the yolk of the ostrich egg. African natives often use the shell of ostrich eggs for water pitchers. The contents of an ostrich egg is sufficient to feed a dozen people. Each egg weighs about three pounds.

Ostriches have been clocked at a speed of 60 miles per hour and can outspeed a horse. Fast action will be in store

Sisters from East at St. Mary's

Mother Superior Mary Ambrose, C.S.M., of Kenosha, Wis., is expected at the Sisters of St. Mary home, 45 E. Laurel, tomorrow, for a ten days' stay in Sierra Madre.

Sister Mary Bernard and Sister Superior Christabel of St. Mary's in the Mountain having been at the Sierra Madre home of St. Mary's for a rest, departed for the East Wednesday. They are from the Girl's School at Sewanee, Tenn.

Work has already started at the St. Mary residence on the addition of four new bedrooms and bath. They will be completed and ready for use before The Ascension School opens next month.

POLICE BLOTTER

Reviewing the Blotter, we find that sometime ago, close to the Fourth, two young men vying for the hand of a pretty young thing, found themselves in trouble with her dad. They were instructed to leave and not return.

"Casey would dance with the Strawberry Blonde" is not strictly classic, and altho it is sweet music to the kiddies when played by the Good Humor girl, there are a lot of complaints about Casey dancing with the blonde too many times, too late at night and too loud.

A lady has trouble with four skunks in her yard. Officer Bob Heasley stirs up a stink. We have here: Dog bite, a house moving, a parking problem and an open garbage pail. (They knew it was open, they could see the flies come out.) Rats are complained of. These happen to be four legged rats.

What she called the guy who parked in her driveway cannot be printed here. Knowing the guy, the names were a little strong, but he still should know better than to obstruct a private driveway. He smiled her out of it.

There are several license plates at the station waiting for the owners to pick them up. The monkey that left home for the trees had a good time swinging before he was caught. She either had too many drinks, too many pills or just mental illusions. She was trying to get the officer to chase the five men away to chase house. It might be that the cop had smoked glasses on, there were no men. She was referred to the County Hospital. She was absolutely certain that her car had been taken from across the street. A theft report was made out. The car was found where she had left it at Roberts Market. It happens every so often.

Diane, age 3, and Daryl, 4½, get quite far from home before they are found. He was pushin' sis' in the family go-cart. Cops are called to assist ambulance men remove a woman from her locked room. "Loud party." He is 2½ years' old, but capable of taking off to do some shopping. It's bad enough to be drinking too much, but to throw the cans and bottles all over his property was the straw. He now forbids parking on his lot.

The Sauters could not remember his name, but said he had the boat concession at the lake. They were surprised to learn it was the former postmaster, Tom Durning.

Thrift

Isn't it strange that among human beings the habit of thrift is more often than not an acquired rather than a natural habit? Most animals seem to possess it instinctively.

Yet thrift can be one of the most satisfying and pleasurable of all habits. It promotes that sense of security and independence, so important to successful living.

It's not a hard habit to acquire, if the effort is accompanied by system. We have the system and we'd be glad to explain it if you'd like to come in and talk to us about it.

property as residences, and reduce property values.

Twenty-seven out of 36 persons living within 300 feet of the proposed school opposed the project and a petition containing signatures of 65 residents protested the variance request.

The only persons who seemed to favor the plan were Mr. and Mrs. John C. James who said that Miss Parker was a good teacher.

Letters of protest were read from W. B. Stringfellow, Frank Wright, and Charlie Root.

Miss Parker has the privilege of appealing to the City Council for a reversal of the commission's decision.

The commission set Aug. 22 as date for a hearing on the variance request of Marjorie Peterson to permit her to continue operating her nursery school in an R-2 zone. She cannot obtain state approval for her school without the zone variance. The zoning law requires her school to be in the R-3 zone. Her property adjoins the R-3 zone on the east and C-1 on the west.

Get an electric home food freezer now...

and have less cleaning up to do!

DO YOU TAKE PRIDE in your home-made pies and pastries, but hate the job of cleaning up after baking? Then being able to serve fresh baked goods every day but only doing the clean up once in a while is certainly a trick to your liking. And exactly that is within your power, when you have an electric home food freezer.

You just set aside a baking day, and then bake for weeks ahead—that's all there is to it. Instead of a pie or cake, mix several—one for the oven, the rest for your food freezer. When you've done the cleaning up on that one day, you're all through. You have a stock of ready-to-bake pastries on hand, and all you do is take 'em out and bake 'em when you're ready. That's all there is to it. You're a cook for a day and a queen for weeks or more. You'll find it's not only easier but less expensive to bake this way.

Summer time is the very best time to buy and stock a home freezer. Your dealer has a variety of styles and models including the one that is just right for you. He can show you how food budget savings will pay for it, too—so why wait? See your dealer now!

CITATION RETIRES, VIA STREAMLINER

The first millionaire Thoroughbred in racing history, Citation here is pictured with Groom Don Barnett in a luxury stall aboard a Union Pacific Streamliner which carried him eastward to retirement. His $100,000 victory in the Hollywood Gold Cup finished the champion's turf career and boosted his winnings to $1,085,760. After parading at Washington Park, Chicago, Citation will be sent to Calumet Farms in Kentucky.

Greek Theatre Presents Anne Jeffreys in 'Bittersweet'

"Bittersweet," Noel Coward's greatest musical hit, will be the fourth outdoor production presented by Producer Gene Mann at the Greek Theatre, Los Angeles for two weeks only beginning Aug. 13.

Anne Jeffreys, one of America's most beautiful stage and screen stars, heads the "Bittersweet" cast. Miss Jeffreys just closed on Broadway as the star of "Kiss Me Kate" in order to appear in San Francisco and Los Angeles in this musical romance.

Lawrence Brooks is Miss Jeffreys' leading man in "Bittersweet." Brooks is as well known on Broadway as he is known to California playgoers for his leading roles in "Song of Norway" and Francois Villon in "Vagabond King."

Another favorite of theatre-goers, Ted Scott, will play a top principal role in this lavish musical. One of Scott's recent top roles was that of a leading man to Anne Jeffreys in "Kiss Me Kate."

"Bittersweet" again brings back the famous San Francisco Ballet Company which scored a sensational success at the Greek a few weeks ago in "Bloomer Girl."

Following the run of "Bittersweet" Gene Mann will present his fifth and final attraction for his 1951 season. Martha Raye as the star of the famed "Annie Get Your Gun" will have a two-weeks' run commencing August 27.

MUSCLES OF DEFENSE

The nation's telephone system is like a chain of muscles binding the country together, muscles that are in the pink of condition, like those of an athlete, ready at all times to do their part in the work of national defense.

A strong national defense is based on quick communications, and the telephone is the vital link in the communication system. Today we are in better shape telephone-wise than we were ten years ago. Since 1940 the number of telephones in the U. S. has been increased by about 96 per cent. The company which serves you has gone ahead at an even faster rate, increasing its number of telephones by 208 per cent in the last ten years. During this period your company has also increased its plant investment by nearly $81 1/4 million, about 370 per cent, and in 1951 will spend another $31 1/2 million for new construction.

Money for construction comes from investors and it is only through reasonable earnings that a telephone company can attract the new funds necessary to do the job.

Times of emergency emphasize the value of dependable telephone service and it is your company's goal to keep pace with the needs of the times.

Polishing Up for L.A. County Fair

Here a bevy of pretty maidens is busily engaged cleaning up the huge statue in front of the fine arts building at Los Angeles County Fair. The same sort of work is going on over the entire 400-acre exposition park as final preparations are made for the grand opening on September 14. A major improvement will be an underpass and overpass to eliminate congestion at the 40,000-car parking lot.

SISTERS RETURN TO SIERRA MADRE HOME

Madeline Doyen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Doyen was brought home from the French Hospital in Los Angeles. Miss Doyen was a surgical patient. Her sister, Sally Doyen, will return home this weekend from Colorado Springs where she has been a guest of Arcadia friends at their ranch. The Doyens live at 605 W. Orange Grove avenue.

List of Rules to Protect Financing

A few rules to observe when making improvements to your home which you expect to finance with FHA Title.

Improvement Loans are outlined here for the protection of the home owner.

When you contemplate building a patio or a fence, re-roof your home or apply asbestos siding or add equipment to your water supply system, etc., be cautious about placing an order with a high-pressure salesman, who may do any of the following things:

1. Over state the merits of the product.
2. Promises guarantees beyond those of the manufacturer.
3. Offers bonuses to you on repeat sales in the neighborhood.
4. Encourage trial purchases.
5. Inflates the price.
6. Hides the fact that in addition to the cost of the improvement, your note will be for an amount that includes the allowable financing charges.
7. Says you don't have to make the required 10% down payment—that he will make it for you.

If you do not know the company or salesman with which you are about to do business, it might be a good idea to check on them through the bank or the Better Business Bureau, as to their responsibility and integrity.

Most dealers or operators who specialize in home improvements are reliable and do satisfactory work, but remember it is your responsibility to see that the work is done in the manner contracted for. It is not the responsibility of the FHA nor the lending institution.

Be sure you do not sign a completion certificate before the job is finished to your complete satisfaction.

Look . . . Hear, Now!

BY STUART and JANE HEINEMANN

An intriguing struggle of the Press versus KTLA headman, Klaus Landsberg, holds the Hollywood television spotlight. Since the Press seldom loses—and when it does yield temporarily it usually wins the last round—the result of the battle can safely be predicted.

But Mr. Landsberg is a stubborn man—one with a single purpose in mind: He wants 100 per cent of all TV set owners to be tuned to Channel 5 one hundred per cent of the time. That he does not already have the entire television in his palm it is sometimes hard for him to believe.

Latest publication to incur Mr. Landsberg's wrath is Tele-views Magazine, a monthly slick magazine which has been in the business almost as long as television stations. Every year the magazine conducts a TV Popularity Poll, which reflects public opinion no more or less accurately than most polls of its kind.

Tele-views' third poll, just recently completed, showed KTLA winning 11 out of 19 awards, an outstanding achievement. One of the 8 awards that failed to go to Mr. Landsberg's station went to KTTV's Ada Leonard for "Top Feminine TV Personality."

Upon hearing this, Mr. Landsberg blew sky high. He blew even higher when the vote for "Top Male TV Personality" went to Korla Pandit, who recently quit KTLA. To top his grievances against Tele-views, Mr. Landsberg read in the Awards issue an interview with Korla Pandit in which the music man said that one of the reasons he had quit Mr. Landsberg's station was that he felt he was "being exploited."

At first KTLA threatened not to send any of its winners to the awards dinner. Then it relented but said it would accept the honors but would minimize the publicity.

Mr. Landsberg, some time back, feuded bitterly with one of the big L. A. daily newspapers. And for some reason or other, every time the head of KTLA's name appeared in its columns it was the victim of such poor typographical negligence as: "Mr. Hans Klausberg"—"Mr. Lans Klassburg"—and sometimes even "Mr. Laus Klansburg."

NEW SHOWS . . .

KTTV is now presenting "Championship Bowling" each Tuesday night from 10:30 to 11:15 PM with remote telecasts from the Western Challenge Bowling Championships at Pan Pacific . . . Swing and swaying Sammy Kaye starts his "Sammy Kaye Show" on KTSB this Saturday at 7:00 PM. Show is based on his "So You Want to Lead a Band" formation with contestants being selected from the audience and asked to lead the band . . . "United—or Not," an unrehearsed news conference with member of the United Nations . . . Correspondents Association interrogating UN delegates and world leaders is now a regular Friday, 8:00 PM feature on KECA-TV . . . Japanese Sumo wrestlers will soon grunt and groan for KTLA cameras on Thursday night wrestling . . . New sports and news show, "Press Box," with Hank Weaver and Chef Huntley reporting, now on KECA-TV, Monday thru Friday, from 11:00 to 12:30 PM.

Don "Breakfast Club" McNeill reports: "When we were in New York I found out how serious Brooklyn fans are about baseball. Ebbets Field vendors holler 'Iodine, bandages and liniment' instead of 'peanuts, popcorn and soda pop'. And when you ask for a bottle of pop, they yell back—'for drinkin' or throwin'?'"

RADIO ACTIVE . . .

Joe E. Brown is subbing for vacationing Don McNeill on "Breakfast Club" . . . Ronald Colman's recipe for "The Halls of Ivy's" success: "Don Quinn writes the big words, director Nat Wolff throws some of them out. And what stays in, Bonita mispronounces!" . . . Ezio Pinza's guest appearance on "The Telephone Hour" will be the first of two broadcasts by the noted basso on NBC radio next week. He will be heard on "Telephone" next Monday and on the NBC Symphony Summer Concert series, Sunday, Aug. 12 . . . Tallulah Bankhead is getting $85,000 in advance on her autobiography, which is being written by her press agent, Women's Home Companion is paying a flat $50,000 for the magazine rights to the piece.

The "Mr. Alladin" radio show on KNX last Monday gave away an idea that should be worth a million dollars to the wrestler smart enough to exploit it on television.

Here it is: Robert Alladin, the fabulous performer of minor miracles, is commissioned by a wrestling promoter to deliver to him a bone twister from another planet, to bolster the gates for the matches that have been badly patronized because of television. The show was called "The Miracle of the Man from Mars."

If, after reading this, some wrestler doesn't spring up to claim he's "The Flying Saucer Man" or something similar, he's losing a great bet.
